Special Events Liability covers General Liability, Property, and Host Liquor Liability for a short-term event.

WHAT DOES IT INCLUDE?

Special Events Liability provides coverage for food and beverage, Product Liability, medical payments coverage and coverage for damage to rented premises. Some Special Events Policies can also provide automatic coverage for volunteers, temporary or leased workers, and committee members.

WHO SHOULD LOOK AT PURCHASING?

Whether hosting a wedding, car show, beer/wine festival, craft fair, or any other public event, a Special Events Liability policy will protect the host against claims of personal injury and property damage.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT?

The coverage that is included in a Special Events Liability are all exposures that most hosts of special events look to control. A loss in any one of these areas can be a huge blow to a company due to the small window of time that a business has to turn a profit on their event. A Special Events Liability policy is a very affordable way to minimize these risks, and ensure that the event is as successful as possible.
